Current students (Senior Buddies) are matched with a small group of international students (First Year Buddies) for a free weekly coffee and a chat. At the end of six sessions you receive a Certificate of Participation.
- Welcome Orientation: take part in activities and competitions as well as a 'Taste of Australia' event hosted by the Griffith Mates

Life in Queensland

With world heritage-listed tropical rainforest in the north, huge cattle farms in the west, and the largest coral reef on the planet — The Great Barrier Reef — in the north east, Queensland is one of Australia's most diverse states. Griffith's five university campuses are located in Queensland's capital city, Brisbane, its second biggest city, the Gold Coast and the vibrant multicultural city of Logan.

Accommodation

Stay in college accommodation on campus and walk ten minutes from your room to class, find your own accommodation in the suburb of your choice, or live with an Australian family. Whatever your decision, Griffith can provide accommodation support and advice about living in Brisbane and the Gold Coast.

A Brisbane Weekend

7.00 am: Beat the crowds and get along to one of the many outdoor markets that happen every weekend around Brisbane. Buy fresh organic food from local farmers and grocers, grab a coffee, sample some of the many cuisines on offer, and listen to live music.

10.00 am: Take a bus, ferry, train or city cycle to South Bank – Brisbane's cultural precinct, and home of Griffith's Queensland College of Art and Queensland Conservatorium of Music. Wander along the river front, swim at the man-made beach, visit the art galleries, ride the Wheel of Brisbane and pick some herbs from 'Epicurious', a public vegetable and herb garden.

12.00 midday: From South Bank (pictured), catch the City Hopper, the free inner city ferry, into Brisbane City and grab some lunch at Dockside, one of Brisbane's premier dining areas. After lunch, stroll down the Queen Street Mall – Brisbane's central business and shopping district.

3.00 pm: If you like the outdoors, head to Kangaroo Point where you can cycle, rock climb, or kayak on the Brisbane River. Or, if your feet are sore, rest on a park bench under one of the iconic Moreton Bay figtrees in the Brisbane Botanical Gardens.

7.00 pm: There are so many things to do in Brisbane in the evening – watch a live show at the New Farm Powerhouse, sample food from all over the world at the Eat Street Markets or investigate Brisbane's thriving bar and live music scene in Fortitude Valley or West End.

7.00 am: Rise with the sun for a yoga session, surfing lesson, refreshing ocean swim or a visit to one of the many farmers' markets.

10:00 am: Be there right when the gate opens to one of the Gold Coast's world-famous theme parks: Dreamworld, Movie World, Wet'n'Wild or Sea World. If you prefer animals to rollercoasters, visit the Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary and meet some of Australia's weird and wonderful native animals, some of which—like koalas—also live wild in the forest around Griffith's Nathan and Mt Gravatt campuses.

10.30 am: Check out The Village Markets in Burleigh Heads or Paradise Point. Held three times a month, this is the Gold Coast's biggest Fashion Market. Featuring vintage clothing and emerging designer stalls, it is the brainchild of two Griffith marketing graduates. You can find out more about it here: thevillagemarketsgc.com.au

12:00 midday: Travel into the Gold Coast hinterland to walk through the largest subtropical rainforest remnant in the world. Refresh under a waterfall or in a fresh water rock pool and enjoy a late picnic lunch.

7.00pm: Eat fish and chips on the beach, or dine in style at one of the Gold Coast's many popular restaurants. Afterwards, take in the nightlife at Broadbeach and Surfers Paradise.
